

Training Jersey Sponsorship

How does training jersey sponsorship work?

A training jersey is a great way to get your company logo out there and talking about who you are!

Our players are in need of training jerseys to ensure that their game day jerseys are kept fresh so they are looking their best at all games. Providing each team with a training jersey, helps us to teach them life skills, the importance of turning up ready to train, keeping their kit clean and presentable. Taking ownership of their belongings that may have been gifted to them, but they are now responsible for the maintenance of that piece of kit.
